

Monique Bär

Member of the Board of Directors

Monique Bär is a partner in Coaching Center GmbH and has worked in supervision and in coaching for corporations and non-profit organizations since the late 1990s. During this period she also built up and headed the Julius Bär Coaching Center. Prior to this she had her own practice and specialized in providing advice for life-balance topics as well as in company seminars on stress management and personal development and communication. She was Chairman of the Board of Global Care, is involved in a number of foundations and non-profit organizations, and is a patron of the "Swiss Code of Ethics". Monique Bär holds a Degree in Engineering from the ETHZ and is a certified IAP/BSO Supervisor.

«Meaningful investment means focusing on the needs of present and future generations. Let's use our financial strength to help shape a future worth living for everyone.»